

FOREIGN TRADE AND INTERNATIONAL COMMODITY PRICES REPORT

June 2026

TOTAL EXPORT

$8.9m

MoM ^[1]

↓ $0.3m (3.5%)

YoY ^[2]

↑ $3.8m (74.8%)

Graph 1. Samoa Exports
(in tala millions)

Domestic

▼ 2.9%
($0.1m)

Re-Export

▼ 3.8%
($0.2m)

Driven by:

- reduced aircraft & ships refueling
- Lower exports of fish, copra and cigarettes.

TOTAL IMPORT

$124.8m

MoM

↑ $22.6m (22.1%)

YoY

↑ $20.3m (19.4%)

Graph 2. Samoa Imports
(in tala millions)

↑ Petroleum (by $15.8m)

↑ Private Sector (by $6.5m)

↑ Government (by $0.3m)

Mainly:

- diesel (up by $9.0m)
- petrol (up by $5.7m)

Also increase imports of rice, motor vehicles and construction materials

GOODS TRADE DEFICIT ^[3]

$115.8m

↑ 24.6% MoM

↑ 16.5% YoY

Graph 3. Merchandise Trade Balance

GLOBAL COMMODITY PRICES ^[4]

RICE

12.3% ▲

COCONUT OIL

8.9% ▼

BEEF

6.2% ▼

COCOA

5.8% ▲

CHICKEN

4.8% ▼

BANANA

2.6% ▼

SUGAR

remains the same

CRUDE OIL PRICES

USD $85.40/barrel

MoM

↓ 20.6%

YoY

↑ 19.5%

- Oil prices decreased further in June 2026 as markets anticipated a recovery in oil supply following the proposed US-Iran agreement to reopen the Strait of Hormuz.
- Whereas global demand continued to weaken due to high prices.^[5]

1. MoM = month on month - change over the previous month

2. YoY = year on year - change over the same month last year

3. Trade balance is the difference between exports of goods and imports of goods

4. Figures sourced from World Bank Pink Sheet.

5. International Energy Agency - Oil Market Report- June 2026

